

£7.9 BILLION

Value of potential net benefits from measures to improve the quality of water bodies and rivers in England<sup>7</sup>

£121.7 BILLION

Turnover generated in 2013 by the low carbon economy, including supply chains<sup>9</sup>

£1.5 TRILLION

The monetary value of selected components of the UK's natural capital in 2011, broadly equivalent to the UK's GDP that year<sup>12</sup>

£3.1 BILLION

Value of benefits over 50 years of wetland creation across 100,000ha in England<sup>5</sup>

£8.4 BILLION

The net present value of improving the status of the UK's freshwater ecosystems<sup>3</sup>

£500 MILLION

Value of benefits that could be gained per year by planting 250,000ha of new woodlands near towns and cities in England<sup>6</sup>

£440 MILLION

Value of pollination to UK agriculture per year<sup>2</sup>

£16 BILLION

Economic value of the effect of small particulate (PM2.5) pollution on mortality in the UK in 2008, equivalent to 29,000 premature deaths<sup>10</sup>

£2.1 BILLION

Healthcare costs that could be saved if everyone in the UK had access to good quality green space<sup>1</sup>

£39.9 BILLION

The size of the UK's 9% share of the global climate-aligned bond market<sup>11</sup>

£1.5 BILLION

Value of benefits provided each year by coastal wetlands in terms of buffering the effects of storms and flood control<sup>4</sup>

£1.4 BILLION

Additional annual UK revenues that could be expected if UK fish stocks recovered to the average levels seen before the 1970s<sup>8</sup>