

Grand Green Idea Competition

Terms & Conditions

1. No purchase of any kind is required to enter the Grand Green Idea Competition ("the Competition").
2. The Competition is open to all community groups, clubs and schools in Scotland ("Community Groups").
3. Only one entry per Community Group.
4. The Community Group must comprise a minimum of six people. The Community Group can be connected in any way e.g. through location such as a street or village, or interests such as a sports club or youth group. Community Groups must nominate a representative for their Group, who must be over 18, to be the point of contact.
5. Entrants must supply the following information for their representative in order to register for the Competition: Full name, telephone number, email address. By entering this Competition you agree that we can communicate with you via electronic means using your email address. Entrants agree that by entering the Competition their personal details may be stored and otherwise processed by WWF-UK for the purposes of administering the prize. Data will only be used for the purposes of this Competition and will be disposed of once a winner has been selected.
6. To enter the Competition, an entrant must complete the form on wwfscotland.org.uk/grandgreenidea and describe, in no more than 500 words, why their Community Group should win the prize, detailing what they have done so far (if anything).
7. Entry to the Competition will open on 23 August 2012 and close by midnight on 30 Sept 2012. Any entrants received after this time will not be eligible to win the prize.
8. There is one prize to be won, and the prize money must be used as detailed in the entry.
9. The prize money can be used to cover the entirety of a project, or can be used as part of a larger fundraising effort where more than 75% of the funds have already been achieved and the project can be delivered within 12 months of the prize money being awarded.
10. The winning Community Group will be announced by 15 October 2012. The winner will be decided upon by a panel including representatives from both WWF-UK and People's Postcode Lottery and no correspondence will be entered into. Ideas will be judged on the following criteria:
 - The environmental benefit to the Community Group or general community;
 - What will be the long term benefits of the project to the community, post funding period;
 - How well the idea communicates current environmental issue or issues;
 - Ability to promote to, or involve, the idea to a wide audience.

11. The winning Community Group will be notified in writing or by telephone, within 28 days of the winner being announced. All reasonable endeavours will be made to contact the winner. If a winner cannot be contacted or is not available, we reserve the right to offer the prize to the runners up.
12. WWF reserves the right to alter, amend or otherwise change the terms of the Competition in the interests of the entrants without prior notification.
13. The Competition is organised and promoted by: WWF-UK, Little Dunkeld, Dunkeld, Perthshire, PH8 0AD.
14. The Competition is not open to employees of WWF-UK or any person directly or indirectly involved in either WWF-UK or People's Postcode Lottery or in the running of the Competition, or their direct family members.
15. Entrants agree that, if they win, they will be happy to participate in press and media work to promote the Competition and to feature in a case study, potentially including film work of the project. These materials may be used in advertising, editorial publicity and online by WWF-UK and third parties.
16. The winning Community Group hereby agrees to the use of its full entry, or extracts thereof being used in the media and on WWF-UK's and People's Postcode Lottery's websites. In addition their names being published on the WWF-UK and People's Postcode Lottery websites in association with the Competition.
17. By entering, you agree to have at least one spokesperson willing and able to take part in media interviews during the Competition period, including during the process of spending the prize and at the end of the project.
18. Entries including false details will be disregarded as will any that are automated or mechanically made.
19. The entrant takes full responsibility and liability for their idea. On no account will WWF-UK or People's Postcode Lottery be liable in any manner whatsoever for such ideas or Events;
20. These Terms and Conditions shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and you and we submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England.
